A Revolutionary View: Saratoga Battlefield & the Breweries of Schuylerville

Schuylerville is located at the easternmost point in Saratoga County which means that highways don't quite get there. No matter how you head to the Battlefield, a beautiful drive along some country backroads is in store. Passing by farms, driving along the Hudson River, and bopping past beautiful old homes makes you know you are taking a worthwhile road trip on a Saturday or Sunday morning. The Battlefield is a little away from anywhere and the drive puts you in the right mood.

Please be aware:

Check all stops before heading out. Some locations may be subject to change and we'd hate for you to hop in the car only to find out they are not open yet when you arrive or worse, have closed their doors.
